DECLASSIFIED

SATURDAY
JANUARY 9, 1954

No sun early this morning but it broke out later and we went in the chair lift to the mountains. There lay in the sun, and later had the best dish of eggs and bacon, frankfurters, spiced with onions, and sauerkraut I've ever tasted. A neighboring coterie of three facetious Austrians sent over to us a wing of charcoal-broiled chicken upon which we also regaled.

Down the hill to the hotel. Read President Eisenhower's State-of-the-Union message and went to a romantic Austrian movie, "The Kaiservalse".
